Miller Environmental Group, Inc. expands operations in two key markets with sustained growth

Miller Environmental Group, Inc. (MEG), headquartered in Calverton, NY has expanded its Operations in the Harrisburg, PA market after opening its original MEG Operation Center in January of 2014. MEG has experienced pronounced growth that has outpaced its expectations. "We are very proud to announce that we have expanded into a 15,000ft<sup>2</sup> space located at 17 Brenneman Circle, Suite 101, Mechanicsburg, PA 17050. This expansion will allow MEG to better serve its client base in the Central PA marketplace." commented Mark Miller, Owner and CEO of MEG. The company will continue to expand its entire service line to customers in the region including Emergency Spill Response, Industrial Cleaning, Environmental Remediation, Waste Transportation, Disposal, Health & Safety Training, and Marine Support services.

Additionally, MEG is growing in the Baltimore, MD market as well. Soon, MEG will be moving to a much larger space in the Curtis Bay area of Baltimore. "MEG will be able to meet and sustain the growth in the Baltimore market by expanding from our current space that we have occupied for the past 12 years." remarked, George Wallace, VP and Chief Commercial Officer. MEG has significantly grown its customer base in the Baltimore, MD market to include Utilities, Marine Transportation, Railroads, Insurance Companies, Chemical Manufacturers, Petroleum Terminals, and many other industries. "The determined growth of our company has positioned MEG to more fully address our clients' needs both geographically and by service line." commented Mark Lucy, Regional Manager for MEG.

Miller Environmental Group is a diversified environmental services company providing its clients industrial cleaning, environmental emergency response, environmental remediation, health and safety training, marine support services, and geothermal drilling coupled with heat pump sales. MEG's corporate headquarters is in Calverton, New York, and the firm has nine offices serving the Mid-Atlantic and Northeastern US.
